

Hi!! THE NAME'S LINDSAY!

IVEBEENBIT.CA

What started as a hobby, I've Been Bit! has grown into an online resource showcasing the adventures of Lindsay Davies. She's a Canadian gal that's been bit by the travel bug - badly!

Whether she's hiking new trails, tasting new delicacies or discovering new waterfalls, Lindsay's always looking for new experiences near and far. Based in Hamilton, Ontario, she loves uncovering hidden gems while supporting local businesses everywhere she goes.

Lindsay adores social media and connecting with others both on and offline. She can deliver blog posts & reviews, Facebook mentions, live exposure on Twitter, beautifully crafted Instagram photos and more! She's also happy to help you create new content for your brand.

By working with Lindsay & I've Been Bit! you'll be embarking on a journey with an upbeat individual whose passion and spunk are infectious. Don't hesitate and jump in with both feet - the water's great!
